

The Yolo Democrat.

COUNTY AND TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

WOODLAND, CAL.
Friday, July 4th, 1873.

DEATH.—Jesse R. Grant, father of the President, died at his residence in Covington, Ky., on Sunday evening. The President was not present.

GRAND COUNCIL.—The next session of the Grand Council of the Improved Order of Red Men will convene in Vallejo, at Odd Fellows' Hall, on the 15th of July.

NEW VOLUME.—The Brooklyn Home Journal has just entered upon its third volume. It is a splendidly conducted paper, among the best in the State, and we trust is well sustained.

LARGE FIRE.—The entire business portion of the town of Hannibal, Nevada, was burned on the morning of the 27th of June. The losses are calculated to be not less than $500,000.

THE CHOLERA.—It is said that in very many cases where the cholera has prevailed at the East and South, the disease has been traced directly to local causes, and some go so far as to say it is not cholera at all, but cholera morbus.

FAST TIME.—In the race at Sacramento on Wednesday, Nell Flaherty, Thornhill, Osceola and Target were the contending horses. Thornhill took the first, Flaherty the second and third heats. Time: 1:44, 1:45, 1:45; the best time and race of mile heats ever made in California.

LUTTRELL.—Congressman J. K. Luttrell has written a letter to Hon. C. Delano, Secretary of the Interior, favoring a thorough investigation into the causes which led to the late Modoc war. He contends that the Indians were driven into it by the acts of bad white men, but at the same time says the Indians who participated in the murder of the Commissioners and settlers should be punished.

THE LARGEST CITY.—Jeddah, the capital of Japan, is without exception the largest and most populous city in the world. It has the vast number of 1,500,000 dwellings, and 5,000,000 human souls. Many streets are nineteen Japanese long which is equivalent to twenty-two English miles. The commerce of Jeddah exceeds that of any other city in the world, and the sea along the coast is constantly white with the sails of ships.

CHEAP LABOR AND CHEAP MONEY.—The Radicals not only want to flood the country with Chinamen because they will work for wages that a white man cannot live upon, but they want cheap money—greenbacks—worth 85 cents on the dollar, but which must pass at par when once introduced. We are, as the Democratic party has always been, opposed to cheap labor and cheap currency. Give us white labor, well paid in coin, and this will be a happy and prosperous people.

EARTHQUAKES.—Disastrous earthquakes have lately occurred in Italy—that land where, though its skies are proverbially bright and its scenery delightful, yet scarcely a week passes without tremors—and this time it seems with disastrous results. The telegraph reports strong shocks at Venice, Verona and throughout Northern Italy, and in one town thirty-eight persons were killed, and in another fourteen, and a great many injured, with great destruction of property.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—Ninety-seven years ago this day, the great Declaration of Independence was signed by the Fathers of this Republic, and no other nation under the sun has ever made such strides in progress, wealth and population as this. It is fit that every citizen should observe it in an appropriate manner. Let us be thankful that we live in a land of plenty, a land of religious and political liberty, and by living as good, honest, patriotic citizens, endeavor to perpetuate these blessings in the future.

CHEAP LANDS.—The July number of the San Francisco Real Estate Circular has the following item, which is interesting to those in search of cheap lands on this coast:

"The Central Pacific Railroad Company owns some millions of acres of land in California and Nevada, embracing every variety of mountain, hill and valley land, soil and climate. All of these lands are for sale on the most favorable terms. The range of prices is from $25 to $75 an acre, and five years' credit is given to buyers. The lands lie along the lines of railroads now in operation. The Company's policy of selling at low prices and on long time is due to the fact that it is for its interest to have the lands speedily pass into the possession of actual settlers, who will pay the taxes thereon, develop the resources of the State, create business, and increase taxable property."

DOWNRIGHT MEANNESS.—The Mail refers to an article in our last issue, "The Radicals and the Chinese Question," as though it was not original, but a communication that had been previously handed to the editor of that paper, rejected by him, and then remodeled and put in the DEMOCRAT as editorial. The article referred to was every word penned by our own hand, and no communication was ever received by us on that subject. So the insinuation is a cheap falsehood coined for the occasion. No wonder the Mail is ashamed of the course its party has pursued on the Chinese Question; but it is useless to attempt to shirk the responsibility; no amount of falsification will clear the leaders of that party from the guilt which so justly attaches to them in consequence of their encouragement of Chinese immigration.

Visit to Napa.

We had the pleasure of a visit to the pretty town of Napa City a few days ago—our first visit to that delightful locality—the climate of which is so pleasant and healthful. The site of the town is very beautiful, being upon a creek, which puts into San Francisco Bay, large enough to admit good-sized schooners at high tide, and on either hand the beautiful plain enclosed with high, undulating hills dotted with scattering timber. A ride across the valley and through the suburbs confirmed all we had ever heard of the town and its surroundings. But when it comes to the style of buildings, the streets and the shape of the town, we think our own little town of Woodland, not half as old, is far ahead of it. And as to scope of country, quality of soil, etc., Napa Valley will not bear comparison with the grand, broad stretch of rich farms around Woodland, for a distance of ten to twenty-five miles in different directions, all within our own county, and nothing to interfere with cultivation. While we were much pleased with Napa and its people, since our trip we are more than ever in love with Woodland and its unsurpassed location and surroundings, in an agricultural point of view.

We found Elders Cornell and Loughborough were laboring in their new tent, preaching the unadorned doctrine of the Bible as they understand them to the people of Napa, many of whom were deeply interested and had embraced the truths taught by those able expounders. This naturally makes quite a stir among the churches, as the congregations at the tent are made up of members of all the churches, and those not connected with any church. One evening an expression was taken upon the Sabbath question, and upwards of fifty persons decided to keep the Seventh-Day Sabbath of the Ten Commandments. This looks very much as though the labor of these preachers would be crowned with success, and as though, as was the case in this place, a church would be raised up founded upon the doctrines of the Seventh-Day Adventists.

And we could not help noticing, as the publisher of a local newspaper, the fact that the Napa papers almost entirely ignore the fact that these preachers are creating such a stir in the community. We should suppose that they would at least mention the fact that these meetings are still going on, as a simple matter of news. But for some reason they seem to avoid it—probably because of the unpopularity of the doctrines of the masses of the people.

We returned home much improved in health and spirits by the trip, and hope to repeat it on another occasion.

An Independent Candidate.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—In to-day's issue of the Mail, I notice a card by James Johnson, announcing himself as a candidate for District Attorney, in respect of votes, in which card he solicits the votes of those who think him "the most suitable man for that position." He states that old issues have passed away, and intimates that he is now the best Republican of them all, for the obvious purpose of securing Republican votes. But the plot is too thin to take with the intelligent Republicans of Yolo County. They will not forget so easily that the modest aspirant has spent his life in open hostility to those principles which are dear to the Republican heart; that his opposition has been continued and bitter so long as it subserved his purpose; that he has been a standing Democratic candidate for office in this State for nearly thirty years; that he has held public offices for over twenty years; that he was elected to those offices by the Democratic party; that for the past two months he has been endeavoring to secure the nomination for District Attorney through the Democratic organization, and that now, when he finds the prospect of success is doubtful, he asks his former opponents to open their arms and receive him. They will not forget that two years ago, in a speech at Woodland, he attempted to demonstrate the folly of continuing the Republican organization, and they will not now be in haste to offer the aid of a power to elect him which at that time he so severely denounced. A VOTER.

SOUTH AMERICAN EARTHQUAKE.—A steamship from Panama which arrived at San Francisco on Wednesday brings the following particulars of the earthquake which occurred in Chile on the 15th of May: Several shocks of earthquake were felt at Valparaiso and other parts of Chile on the 15th of May last, which diffused a general terror. "The ground utterly dammed under our feet," says the West Coast Mail. It commenced at 12:32 P. M., and lasted 42 seconds. The motion was vertical. Several persons were hurt and killed, especially among miners, carpenters and others, who leaped off the scaffolding on which they were at work. The Church of the Apostles was injured, and the Mercaderes in a dangerous state, as well as a great many other public and private buildings which are more or less damaged. Many gaseliers were twisted from the shelves, and the rooms filled with dust. At Quilota it was severely felt, as well as in La Ligua, Santiago, Cauquenes, San Carlos, at Chillan, at Concepcion and Talcahuano but slight.

WORTH IMITATING.—It would not be a bad idea if such of our business men as dwell on the corners of Main street should take pattern by the comfortable improvement made in the sidewalk at Bentley's corner.

A GOOD THING.—The Brass Band of Professor Ellis treated the Public on Monday night to some fine music, delivered in the Court House square.

THE ALDINE.—This splendid art work for July is a capital number, both as regards its literary and artistic merits. It opens with a full-page illustration of the "Sagittarius," a "Catching Him!" "Moonlight on the Shenandoah" is the title of the first of a series of five illustrations drawn by Mr. J. D. Woodward. They are picturesque and beautiful. Mrs. Eliza Grestor transports us back to Old New York, in her spirited sketch of "Bell Gate Ferry." "A Dainty Bit" after Otto Meyer is delicious enough to provoke an epicure and a lover. "The Morning Bath," by E. Wagner, and "You Naughty Children!" A. Gahl. There is a noble portrait of "The Countess Pototski," a fine architectural view of "The Frankreich, Nuremberg;" a woodland scene entitled "The Onset," by G. Kroner, and a weird picture of a bittern, standing alone in a desolate marsh upon which the moon is just rising, a most poetic and impressive realization of "Solitude." The Literature of the Aldine is as far as excellent and varied, as that of any other American magazine. There are in the present number good stories, "Sagittarius," a study of New England life, Mrs. H. G. Row, whose name is new to us; "Return in Peace," a study of old home life in the State of New York, by Lucy Ellen Gurnsey; "The Comet," by Erkman Chastin; and "The Turkish Slipper," by Maurice Hartmann. The more solid articles are readable editorial on "The Old Dominion," apropos of Mr. Woodward's illustration, another on "The Frankreich, Nuremberg," and "A Life's Romance," a brief memoir of the Countess Pototski. The poems are "The Song in the Dark," by Mary E. Bradley; and "Sebastian at Supper," by Margaret J. Preston. Music, Art, and Literature are intelligently and independently discussed. Altogether the number is remarkable good. Subscription price $5.00, including Chromos "Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor." James Sutton & Co., Publishers, 58 Maiden Lane New York.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE for July is ahead of any previous number, and when we consider its usual standard excellence, this is rare praise indeed. Its table of contents shows a wonderful adaptation of articles to the individual members of the family circle. "The Little Girl," a temperance story by Mary Hartwell, "Weather-tough Block," by Karl Kae, "How The Yow was kept," by H. V. Osborne, "Lunatics at Large," by Rev. F. W. Holland, and "The Declaration of Independence," by J. B. Wakley, D. D., are among the more noticeable articles. The Children's Department is crowded full, and will be very acceptable to the little ones. The price of the Magazine is for a year. Address, Wood's Household Magazine, Newburg, N. Y.

1309 WORDS ON A POSTAL CARD.—Mr. C. H. Davis of the N. Y. and Columbia County Telegraph office recently mailed a postal card upon which was written in plain English without abbreviation one thousand words.—The Telegraph, June 14th.

This morning Mr. Chas. W. Gearhart, Manager of the Western Union Office in this city, mailed a postal card upon which he had written a brief note to his brother. It contained 1309 words, in plain English, without abbreviation! At latest accounts the "W. U." was still ahead and says he can put 1309 words on one for coin.

LARGE LUMBER ARRIVALS.—The Bark Onward, from Puget Sound, arrived at Vallejo on the 29th of June with a cargo of 200 M. ft. of lumber; also, the schooner Mary Hart, from Fick's Mill, with a cargo of 60 M. ft. of lumber—all for R. H. Newton & Co.

POSTAGE.—From and after the 1st of July postage is chargeable upon all matter passing through the mails or postoffice. On this paper the rate is five cents for three months, payable in advance.

FOUND.—Two packages have been left at Ruggles and Reinhold's drug store for the owner, one containing a pair of ladies' shoes, and the other a quantity of arrowroot.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.—Among the names of the Republican candidates for Sheriff, that of Judge C. S. Frost was freely mentioned on the streets during the past week.

FOR JUSTICE.—We are authorized to state that Sam. Ruland is a candidate for Justice of the Peace for Cache Creek Township at the ensuing October election.

New Advertisements.

To the Voters of Yolo County.

The Democratic leaders of the nation have given us a platform, borrowed from a Republican source, and substantially the same as that of the Republicans. Old issues have passed away, and the condition of the country is such that new ones must soon be formed, without reference to former political affiliations. Those believing, I will ask no political convention whether or not I may be a candidate; I therefore announce myself as a candidate for the office of DISTRICT ATTORNEY, and solicit the votes of those who believe me to be the most suitable man for that position. JAMES JOHNSON.

A disease is prevalent among J. W. Brown's hogs which is lessening his drive at a rapid rate.

Political feeling in Cachville has not yet increased to any excitement, as there is no one excepted to the proceedings.

The Mail, in a gushing flow of nonsense, says: "Let's all go to Cachville."

A BIG FARM.—The following from the Sacramento Union, says the California Sun stretches the Doctor's farm a little on the river front, but it is in the main nearly correct. Dr. Glenn, of Colusa county, owns a ranch which contains nearly 45,000 acres. It is situated on a front of eighteen miles on the Sacramento River, and extends back about five miles. It is divided into five parts, each of which is a separate farm. One part is 3,000 acres, and contains about 10,000 acres of land. The other parts are of various sizes, and contain various crops. The Doctor's farm is a very large and valuable one, and is well known in the State.

A MAN COOKED AHEAD.—The Virginia City Enterprise gives the following account of the shocking accident which befell C. W. Cullen, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, in this city. Mr. Cullen was engaged in erecting a new building on the corner of Third and Main streets, and was in the habit of going to the building to see the workmen. On the morning of the 2nd inst., he was in the building, and was looking over the plans. He was then struck by a falling beam, and was killed. The accident was a very shocking one, and the death of Mr. Cullen was a great loss to the city.

HIRAM POWERS.—A cable dispatch from London, dated the 2nd inst., says that Hiram Powers, the celebrated American sculptor, has died. He was born in Medford, Mass., in 1823, and was a very successful sculptor. He had been in London for many years, and had made a name for himself as a sculptor. His death was a great loss to the art world.

THE VESPER BELLS THAT BONG.—In the edition of the Sacramento Union of the 2nd inst., there was an account of a man who had been in Italy for many years, and who had been a very successful man. He had been in Italy for many years, and had been a very successful man. He had been in Italy for many years, and had been a very successful man.

THE BLUES.—Cheerfulness and occupation are closely allied. The man who is cheerful and occupied is a happy man. The man who is sad and idle is a miserable man. The man who is cheerful and occupied is a happy man. The man who is sad and idle is a miserable man.
